AMDA – The Society for Post-Acute and Long-Term Care Medicine is the medical specialty society representing the community of over 50,000 medical directors, physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and other practitioners working in the various post-acute and long-term care (PALTC) settings. The Society's members work in skilled nursing facilities, long-term care and assisted living communities, CCRCs, home care, hospice, PACE programs, and other settings. CAPALTC – Carolinas Society for Post-Acute and Long-Term Care Medicine is a state chapter of AMDA, serving North Carolina and South Carolina. Both AMDA and CAPALTC can provide numerous opportunities and resources to make your job easier.
