

Member Benefits

Networking Opportunities:

1. Network with other post-acute and long-term care associations and professionals at live meetings and online.
2. Website access to post-acute and long-term care educational events, important legislation, related post-acute and long-term care organizations, and other useful industry and regulatory links.
3. We provide Valuable opportunities to expand your professional contacts and to be involved in peer discussions.

Leadership Development:

1. Opportunities to set the agenda for educational programs, development efforts, and post-acute and long-term care advocacy efforts.
2. You can help to develop and create standing committees to further our mission.

Discounts:

1. Receive discounts to Caring In the Carolinas – Annual Symposium on Geriatrics and Post-Acute Care (offering Credits including AMA PRA Category 1 Credits)

Patient Care Advocacy:

1. Opportunity to raise awareness and to advocate for vital long-term care issues, such as patient safety, reimbursements, Medicare, and Title VII legislation.
2. Help to lead change in cutting-edge issues such as culture change, patient-centered care, and transitions of care.

Advocates on your behalf– CPALTC's efforts include regular dialogue with PGBA, legislators, AMDA, and related associations.

Professional Advancement – CPALTC's educational conferences offer post-acute and long-term care specific training and networking.

Communication and Resources – Stay informed about current issues in post-acute and long-term care.